

English Language teachers' Association of Macedonia

Respected principals and English Language teachers,

Within its annual programme of work, ELTAM- the English Language Teachers' Association of Macedonia organizes workshops and seminars for professional development for its members- the teachers of English from all levels of education.

Within its cooperation with the well- established institutions for higher education, ELTAM would like to invite the teachers of English language from your school to attend the workshop which will take place on 4 May 2015 in the hotel TCC Grand Plaza in Skopje.

Further below you can read more information about the content and the agenda of the workshop.

I sincerely hope that you will be able to inform the teachers of English from your school so that they can register and participate at the seminar.

Respectfully,

Elizabeta Hristovska

ELTAM president

Dear all,

We cordially invite you to attend the Professional Seminar entitled "How to Achieve Excellence in the Foreign Language Classroom" offered by the English Studies Department of the University of Sheffield International Faculty, CITY College.
